DESCRIPTION

Inspired by Josef Albers' series of paintings "Homage to the Square" that explore the chromatic interactions with nested squares, this stunning saddle leather mirror has a frame consisting of three squares in a solid yellow colour nested within one another with the mirror sitting at the lower centre. The multidimensional effect, enhanced by black grooves on the geometric pattern of the tiles, will bring movement, form, and light to any room. A stunning mirror that can be hung or leaned against a wall, in a bedroom over a dresser, in an entryway on a console, solo or in multiples for an eye-catching effect.
