DESIGNER
GRETA M. GROSSMAN

DESCRIPTION

The GT Lounge Chair was designed by Greta M. Grossman in 1949 and with its sleek and feminine lines, it beautifully expresses the influence that Scandinavian design had on her. Designed for comfort as well as aesthetics, her timeless lounge chair has a feminine and light silhouette that is supported with elegant slender legs, which is a true signature for Greta M. Grossman's designs. The GT Lounge Chair, which she showcased at her prestigious Los Angeles store on Rodeo Drive with which she used to decorate many of the homes she designed, was like most of her furniture custom built or produced in exceptionally small numbers.
