DESCRIPTION

Warmth, strength and subtlety define the Howard Pendant Lamp – Space Copenhagen’s distinctly Scandinavian celebration of New York’s industrial palette. Abundant with material and atmospheric references from the SoHo location of the Howard Hotel, for which they were originally designed, they exude a warm, tactile feel. The carefully crafted gunmetal brass shades with a brushed brass interior lend an industrial, functional aesthetic while adding a warmth to the light it casts. For a more gentle effect, a bone china shade – providing a more diffuse light and a softer silhouette – can also be selected. As part of the highly coherent Howard Collection, they can be combined with a large range of elements which speaking the same sophisticated and elegant and modern language.
