

PRECIOUS PANEL SILVER

COLLECTION
JAN KATH

DESIGNER

DESCRIPTION

At first glance it appears as though a barely five-millimetre thick solid metal sheet is lying on the floor. Only at close range does the beholder realize that it is not a solid piece of copper, brass or brushed aluminum, and that no metallic materials or special chemical dyes have been used at all. Cool to look at, yet warm to the touch.
