DESCRIPTION

Take Me Home by Collection Particulière continues to break free from all the boundaries between furniture and objects. More than ever, the Maison d'édition founded by Jérôme Aumont asserts its transversal and eclectic perspective, and enriches its catalog with new shapes : vases, cups, trays, sofas, coffee table and dining table. Collection Particulière revisits the universe of an unapologetic collector, whose eye knows how to free itself from the only use to privilege an aesthetic carried by the requirements of the lines, the beauty of the gesture, the natural elegance of the material.
