MAISON POUENAT

DESIGNER
FRANCOIS CHAMPSAUR

DESCRIPTION

François Champsaur, interior architect/designer, devises full development projects and interior design for the high end hotel industry as well as for individuals. Alongside his interior design work, he leads design projects and his furniture is released both in France and abroad. His furniture and lighting collection for POUENAT, a geometric work, emphasises the infinite possibilities offered by metal: lines can be fluid or angled with a result that is always refined and that has the imprint of elegance.
