

T STOOL 1927

COLLECTION
ECART PARIS

DESIGNER
PIERRE CHAREAU

DESCRIPTION

Pierre Chareau's T Stool, c. 1927. Varnished oak & patinated steel. Available in different wood species and finishes. From the so-called "Wood-metal" period, considered as one of the most accomplished of Pierre Chareau's modern production, the T Stool, or SN3, stands as an emblematic creation by the French designer, realized in collaboration with ironworker Louis Dalbet. The piece was featured in numerous projects, including the Grand Hôtel de Tours (1928) and the iconic Maison de Verre (1928-1931).

MATERIALS
Steel, Oak

FINISHES
Anthracite Lacquered Steel, Natural, Brown, Wenge, Black, Rosewood

DIMENSIONS
Width: 19.29" (49cm)
Depth: 16.14" (41cm)
Height: 18.90" (48cm)