DESCRIPTION

In addition to our collections of carpets and furniture, Atelier Tortil is now developing small limited-edition ranges, created in collaboration with designers or artists, painters or visual artists, and drawing on other disciplines to which life, and shared sensibilities, may lead the studio. More than ever, with these Cahiers d'Artistes, everything is a matter of encounters and interpretation. For what Atelier Tortil seeks to write with these cahiers is not a copy - there is no question of duplicating the work of artists on a carpet or a piece of furniture - but rather an expression of such work. Through these projects, designer, design director and artisan combine their inspirations and know-how to offer an adaptation, a creative and technical translation of a motif or a style that becomes a new and original story. To open the first volume of its Cahiers d'artistes, Atelier Tortil presents TERRA, carpets designed by architect and designer Charlotte Biltgen, who draws her inspiration from the mystery of a craft born in Japan.
